Hazel, Jr., MD - Virginia's Secretary of Health and Human Resources.

Next month, we will hear from David Coe, Executive Director of Colonial Behavioral Health.

In six short months, the Innovation Network has grown to over 625 members and 13 communities. With new features coming in 2014 - including educational events and innovation challenges - we are conducting a brief member survey to find out what has been most relevant and what types of content and features members would like to see more of.

To participate in the survey, click the button below. You will be directed to log in to the Innovation Network in order to access the survey.

Description: An increasing number of families face the unique challenges of deployment of a family member. This webinar will explore the intersection of military service and family violence, and provide guidance for health care providers in both military and civilian settings who care for military families.

Learning Objectives:

1. Understand the impact of the stress of military service on psychological health
2. Review the research on interpersonal violence and child maltreatment in military families
3. Discuss risk assessment and strategies for prevention and management of risk of family violence in military families
4. Review practice and policies on the development and promotion of resilience in military families

Featured Speakers:

- Barbara Craig, MD, FAAP, Director, Armed Forces Center for Child Protection, Walter Reed National Military Medical Center at Bethesda
- April A. Gerlock, PhD, ARNP, PMHNP-BC, PMHCNS-BC, Clinical Associate Professor, School of Nursing, University of Washington
- Katherine Robertson, LCSW, Family Advocacy Program Manager, Office of the Deputy Assistant Secretary, Military Community and Family Policy, Department of Defense
- Moderator: Cara J. Krulewitch, CNM, PhD, FACNM, Director, Women's Health, Medical Ethics and Patient Advocacy Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense, Department of Defense
